and Bangor, commencing July 10th, which without doubt will add much to the attraction of this already popular route.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Golden Scepter Co., of Cincinnati, which appears in another column. This remedy, which can be administered without the necessity of a physician, has worked wonderful cures, and saved many persons from druggists' graves.—adv

Dr. N. H. Wight, who died at Gil-manston, N. H., May 12, aged 76 years, was a native of Gilead, this County.

He studied medicine with Dr. Grover, of Bethel, and graduated from the Maine Medical School in 1832. He had lived in Gilead 62 years and was one of the foremost physicians in the State.
